

PRESS RELEASE

Statement of the UN Resident Coordinator in Mozambique on the occasion of President Nyusi's inauguration

Maputo, 15 January 2020 - On the occasion of President Nyusi's inauguration, the United Nations Coordinator in Mozambique, Ms. Myrta Kaulard, reiterates the UN support for peace and development in the country.

The United Nations in Mozambique looks forward to working together with the Mozambican institutions, civil society and private sector in a major move towards prosperity and inclusion for everyone, everywhere in Mozambique.

The Personal Envoy of the UNSG congratulates President Nyusi. Mozambique now has a real chance for a definitive peace and the UN is committed to working with President Nyusi, Renamo and all the parties and institutions in Mozambique to make this a reality.
